Obituary

Pauline Cheatham Hall was born on October 30th, 1917, to the late Eugene Cheatham and Mary Alice Eaton Cheatham of Henderson, North Carolina. She was the second of nine children. She was educated in the Vance County Public School system.

She was a member of Red Bud Baptist Church where she accepted Christ at a very early age, and served faithfully.

In 1935, Pauline married the late Lonnie J. Evans and from this union three daughters were born. Lonnie Evans departed this life in 1955 after a brief illness. Pauline relocated to NYC in 1944 and later joined Southern Baptist Church, where she served as a faithful and active member.

In 1958, Pauline Evans married Joseph Hall, who preceded her in death in 1986. She was also preceded in death by her two daughters, Annie R. Jackson and Deborah J. Evans as well as one grandson, Ronald Jackson.

She was a member of the Floral Ministry for many years. When she was no longer able to participate physically, she supported them financially until she became a resident of Providence Rest Nursing Home.

She departed this life on Saturday, November 20, 2010.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her daughter, Mary Brodie and William R. Tribute

God saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb. So He gently closed your weary eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

You bid no one a last farewell, and said goodbye to none, your loving heart had ceased to beat, your stay on earth was done.

The flowers placed upon your grave may wither and decay, but the memories of you will never fade away.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
