Obituary

*"The soul departed in the Lord does not die;
it returns to God, who is the giver of life."*

Glenn Robert Applewhite, beloved son of the late Albert Applewhite Sr. and the late Mary Lee Barnes-Applewhite, was born in Goldsboro, NC on March 20, 1947. Glenn attended Dillard High School in Goldsboro. After moving to New Jersey over 37 years ago, he worked at Maplewood Tire for many years and at Scott Tires of Clifton, NJ Glenn loved to work on cars, and he also loved to watch wrestling and Western movies. He spent a lot of his time helping others, and always did it with a smile. Family and friends were very important to him, especially his niece, Rosemary, with whom he shared a special bond.

Glenn is survived by his loving wife of 33 years, Pearline Applewhite; children, Natasha Sanders (Kyrese), Shaun Applewhite and Keir Robert Mechem of Newark, NJ, Shonda Applewhite of Tarboro, NC, Glenn Robert, Missy, Darrell, Anthony and Teresha Applewhite of Goldsboro, NC; twenty-one grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren; seven brothers, Albert Jr., Johnny, Edward, Roscoe, Lewis, Handy, Clifton and one sister, Mary Leftridge, preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory three sisters, Doris Murray (Alexander), Carolyn and Pernelia ; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Glenn will be truly missed by all.

Mr. Fix-It

You name it – he'd fix it
Good advice – he'd give it
Fruitful life – he lived it
And he did it with a smile.
Family man, neighbor man - he could do it all Superman Mr. Fix-It - always on call.
Didn't need a cape nor a Batmobile - His strength was in his hands, which were strong as steel.
Hanging out with Brutha Mack, keeping watch over the 'hood
Kings of the hill, just keepin' it good.
Giving respect and getting respect
from young and old Proof that a man's hands can be windows to his soul -
Glenn Applewhite had a lot of soul.
You will be missed.

I Am At Peace

We don't know about tomorrow, so we hold on to the Master's hand, for he knows what lies ahead.
God viewed his garden and realized
there was space for one, so he chose me instead.
My time here for many may have seemed to be brief, but please my loved ones & friends do not fill it with grief.
For me, please keep the smile upon your face, as I will be with the angels above, in the Lord's place.
Keep memories of me alive by doing as I would; give to those in need the most, befriend whomever you should.
Remember that I love you all, remember me in joy.
Be not burdened with sorrow, I wish you sunshine on tomorrow.
What God had planned was already written in stone.
"The earthen vessel is broken, the Treasure now has flown; The Lord hath taken back again, What is by right his own."
