Obituary

Mildred Tillman (Parker) was born in Rose Hill, North Carolina on September 12, 1917, to the late Gilbert and Lula Parker.

After a lengthy illness on November 20, 2010 at Beth Israel Medical Center in New York, God called Mildred home to rest.

She loved and cherished her husband, Robert Lee Tillman Jr. and son, Bobby whom both preceded her in death. She was a devoted wife and mother. She also was a mother figure to all her brother's, she had an unconditional love for her family.

She loved cooking, traveling and entertaining family and friends. Her inner and outer beauty shined brightly.

She was a member of the Springfield Gardens Seventh Day Adventist Church, where she attended faithfully until her health failed.

She leaves to mourn: three brothers, Pearlie (Frances); sister-in-law, Willie (Margie); sister-in-law, Lonnie; one sister, Ethel May Parker. Ray, Paul, John Earl, Clifton, Gilbert Jr., Lonnie, Edith, Louise and Lizzie Mae all preceded her in death. Also a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.

I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard Him call.

I turned my back and left it all. I could not Stay another day, to laugh, to live, to work or pray.

Task left undone must stay that way.

I've found my peace at the close of the day.

*If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things I too, will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift your hearts and share with me. God wanted me now, He set me free.*
