Obituary

Jonathan Lee White was born September 19, 1961 and departed this life on November 23, 2010 at his residence after a lengthy illness.

Jonathan received his education in the Newark Public School system. He was employed as a superintendent for many years.

Jonathan met the love of his life, Carol Williams in the summer of 1981. He nicknamed her “Black Beauty” they bared two sons together, Kason Williams and Jonathan T. Williams who preceded him in death. He adopted his wife’s two daughters, Kisa Williams and Keyondar Williams.

Affectionately known as “Johnny” Jonathan was born to the late Ms. Doris Redfern and Mr. Teno White.

He was preceded in death by his three brothers, Rodney, Micheal and Lavon and his son, Jonathan T. Williams.

Jonathan leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Carol Williams; his four sons, Rasheek, Kareem, Hakim and Kason; two daughters, Kisa and Keyondar; two sisters, Dian and Felecia; six nephews, Rodney, Rahman, Malik, Wallik, Rakiem and Rabir; two nieces, Kiwana and Kathrah; five god children, Sherell, Mary, Rakeim, Malik and Sharif; and a host of other relatives and friends.

My Heart

My heart is heavy my tear's are like water fall's

My spirit is weak my strength is gone

And every one around me say it's gone be ok

How can one breathe when breath of love is gone

I prayed for a miracle for yet He took you

I hear screams and yelling but I try to awake

from this nightmare I wish you could be there.

I'd give any thing to see you smile again I know I say it often

While you was Yet here wait for me

I'll see you in there In Heaven One Day

I say I'll know just hold on for me Daddy just a little longer

This can not be the end...is it over We Be All Dance With You Again with you when will I see your smile Again, you teach

Me more About Heavenly Thing.

My heart is heavy my tears are like water falls

My spirit is weak my strength is gone

Hey my Lord when would it be alright....

When will this pain...end

How much longer do I have to suffer this...

I guess I have to wait on you Lord...

I cry out to your holy name

Waiting on you to reelease my pain.....

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
