Obituary

Rose Carol Randolph was born on June 13, 1939 to the late Emma Kearney Smith and James C. Smith. Growing up in Scotland Neck, North Carolina, she graduated from Brawley High School. After high school she relocated to Boston where she worked at Raytheon Manufacturing Company for four years. She later met and married Walter (Turk) Randolph. To this union three children were born, one of whom preceded her in death.

Soon after, she relocated to New Jersey. Rose was an excellent and dedicated worker always ensuring she provided for her family. She generally worked at night in an effort to help care for family and friends children.

Several nieces and nephews remember Rose as a strict aunt but she really softened once she became a grandmother. Rose loved her grandchildren and each one of them had a special place in her heart. She used to bake cakes to fund raise for her youngest grandson to attend track meet tournaments. Several people have even requested her famous pineapple coconut cake at her daughter's job. She also enjoyed cooking.

During the last eight years, Rose worked at the Star Ledger where she later retired due to declining health. Rose was a member of Peoples Missionary Baptist Church in Linden, NJ. As a faithful member she served on the usher board and the choir. She later joined Greater Mt. Moriah Baptist Church in Linden, NJ. She knew and loved the Lord.

On November 30, 2010, she demised in Columbia, SC, beside her two children, Dwayne Randolph, Columbia, SC and Twanna Dent, Piscataway, NJ.

Rose is survived by: her father, James C. Smith, Scotland Neck, NC; four grandchildren, Duane, Jr., Chelsea, Dajuan and D'ondre; one daughter-in-law, Sheila Randolph; one son-in-law, Duane Dent, Sr.; two brothers, Prince and William Smith; two sisters-in-law, Lena Smith and Barbara Smith; three aunts, Louise Knight, Ann Kearney and Alberta Kearney; and a host of nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews; as well as others.

Come To Rest

God saw you getting weary. He did what He thought best. He put His arms around you and said "come and rest." He opened up His golden gates on that heartbreaking day. And with His arms around you, you gently slipped away. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. A part of us went with you the day God called you home.
