Obituary

“To everything there is a season, and a time. To every purpose under the heaven; a time to be born and a time to die.”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

Lorena J. Vines was born March 3, 1962 in Harlem, New York. On Friday, December 3, 2010, the sovereign Lord in His infinite wisdom called her home to rest. She will be greeted by her mother, Lucia Thompson, her sister, Karen Rone and her sister-in-law, Barbara Cook-Thompson.*

After moving to Queens, Lorena attended Andrew Jackson High School where she excelled in varsity basketball and baseball, wrote poetry and enjoyed modern dance and writing. Upon her graduation, Lorena attended college in Queens. After college, Lorena entered the corporate world. Soon to follow was marriage and two children, Jamel and William. As time went on, Lorena moved on to work at United Parcel Services to become a computer technician. While there Lorena met her future fiancé and life partner, Sidney - who was devoted, caring and supportive for the remainder of Lorena's time on earth. (She will surely be missed).

She leaves to cherish her memories: her fiancé, Sidney Curtis; two sons, Jamel Vines and William Jones; one aunt, Josepha Jones; one uncle, Kenneth Frett; two brothers, Richard K. Thompson and Enos E. Stevenson, Jr.; nephews, Curtis Rone, Enos E. Stevenson, III and Steven J. Stevenson; two nieces, Tanya and Kayla; plus a host of friends, former colleagues and not to be forgotten are her beloved four legged friends, Jack and Moxie.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
