Louise Parker

January 4, 1920 - November 26, 2010

Obituary

Louise Parker was known as “Ma” to many and “Red” to her closest of friends. She moved to Harlem, New York in the mid 1940’s from Birmingham, AL. She was born on January 4, 1920, one of thirteen children. Born to Edward Parker, Sr. and Mary Epps. God called her home after a long illness on November 26, 2010. She has one surviving sister, Queen Ester Smith.

Louise was an excellent cook, seamstress and homemaker. She was a lover of books, good music and entertaining. Her home was the gathering place for her family and friends. She also sheltered and fed so many who had nowhere to go. She turned away no one, neither human nor pet.

She will once again join her three children who were called home before her, Benny Louise at birth, Douglas and Mary.

She leaves behind to mourn: her children, Charlie, Joseph, David, Bradley, Anthony, Janet Diane and Michael; grandchildren, Sharon, Tryan, Jerome, Ulrie, Jeffrey, Stephaine, Marlon, Tiffanie, Christine, Derron, Lil Doug, Shaunielle, Stacey, Stevland, Michael, Jr., Tony, Rosalyn, Trevor, Leslie, Anthony, Shamara and Bradley, Jr. Called home before her were her grandchildren, Quinces and Lil David.

She also leaves behind thirty-three great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. She was deeply loved and her presence will be missed.

My Mother

*What a precious gift to life she is,
My Mother
Embodied with the gentle strength
Of our ancestor's eternal love
She truly is the meaning
Of understanding and goodness.
With support and guidance
She gave me the freedom
To follow my mind and my heart,
Encouraging me always to
Seek the goodness in others
And find it in myself.
This Mother's Day
I realize how lucky I am
That I can say
She is my Mother.*
