Obituary

Hazeline Goodwin-Atkins was born July 20, 1924 in Osceola Mills, Pennsylvania to the late Onia and Ethel Goodwin. She came to Newark, New Jersey at an early age. She was baptized by the late Bishop O. T. Jones, and was a member of Wells Cathedral Church of God in Christ for several years. She was employed at Weston and retired after more than fifteen years with the Company.

In 1971, she joined New Hope Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor Charles E. Thomas. As a member of New Hope Baptist Church she served as Financial Secretary and Vice President on the Willing Workers for twenty-five years, she served on the First Lady Society, as Food Director in the Food Ministry, and as President of the Missionary Board.

Hazeline was active in the community, in her church and other churches. She had a special love for people both young and old.

She volunteered for the Mother Theresa Food Ministry, and the Gospel Cathedral Food Ministry. She belonged to the National Women's Conference where she served as Treasurer. She volunteered as an Outreach Children's Sunday School Teacher for Zion Family Worship Center at the Harmony House located in Newark, New Jersey. She was an Eastern star. She gave her time willingly to all.

She taught her children and grandchildren to be independent, aim for the highest, reach for the best, and always put God first.

Hazeline Goodwin-Atkins passed away Wednesday, December 8, 2010.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Ethel Smith, John Atkins and Sandra Atkins-Walker; a son-in-law, Eric Walker, Sr.; ten grandchildren, Bishop Reginald and Pastor Cynthia Atkins, Regina Atkins-Williams, Anthony Harris-Atkins, Jordan Harris-Atkins, Eric and Patricia Walker, Meshach Walker, Joshua Walker and Isaiah Walker; seven great-grandchildren, Chantel Atkins, Deveron Atkins, Reginald Atkins, Jr., Shekinah Atkins, Lemuel Atkins, Peniel Atkins and Maciah Dewitt, one great-great grandchild, Taijmere Atkins; two nieces, Gloria Foye and Deborah Quinitcette; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Please join the family of Sis. Hazeline Goodwin-Atkins for a repast immediately following the interment in The New Hope Baptist Church - Fellowship Hall.

A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two shining eyes at rest;
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you
The day He took you home.

Gratefully Acknowledged and
Sadly Submitted
The Family

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
