The Obituary

Saint Delores, daughter of the late Alice Sanders-Johnson and James Henry Carson, was born October 30, 1937 in Charlotte, North Carolina. At the age of six, she moved to New York where she attended school and joined the United House of Prayer.

Delores Sanders was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Raleigh DeWitt in New York, NY. She gave birth to seven children, Linda, Efrem, Walter, Leslie George, Jawn, Angela and Selenia. After her marriage, she was remembered to her family and friends as a ballerina and as a model for REBA's Model Agency. Soon after, she worked for S. Klein. She then found employment at Harlem Hospital where she worked as a nurse's aide for twenty plus years, then retired in 1998.

Saint Delores "Dee" DeWitt was a faithful member at the United House of Prayer. She joined the Bailey's Ushers, The Holy Cross and The Emmanuel Singers. She was a dedicated worker in the cafeteria and preproom until she couldn't work any longer. However, she continued to serve the Lord at the House of Prayer.

She was a devoted mother to all her children as well as a grandmother and great grandmother. She was compassionate and a truly loving and caring person. She had a smile that lit up the room.

Although she was soft spoken, her heart spoke loudly. She loved to cook and enjoyed teaching you if you didn't know how. Even if you did not want to hear the truth, she always gave good advice. I guess that's why they called her "Ma Dee". She was truly an inspiration to us all.

On December 17, 2010, God decided that it was time for his angel Saint DeWitt to come home. She leaves to mourn their loss and cherish wonderful memories: five children, Linda and Walter of Binghamton, NY, Efrem, Leslie George and Selenia of Bronx, NY; one sister, Yanetta of Utah; one aunt, Salaha of Boston, MA; fourteen grandchildren, Tiffany, LaShea, Anthony, Raymond, Leslie A., Shannel, Martin, Shayla, Takeia, Jahnay, EJ, Jayvon, Janai and Melah; nine great grandchildren, Brielle, Alpha, Brittany, Shanaisa, Leslie (Chippy), Saifon, Ayala, Savion and Brianna; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Come To Me

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
