Obituary

Julien Eustache was born on July 26, 1918 in L'Azile, Haiti.

Julien wanted a better life for his family and countryman. He completed his Juris Doctorate Degree. As an attorney, Julien was able to support his family and to help others. He lived his life caring for others. He was a kind and loving person and he wanted to make a difference. That opportunity came in 1956 when he was appointed to the Tribunal Section Nord as a Judge. He served that position honorably until he retired in 1992. Retirement could not keep him down. When his country called, he returned to the bench for a few more years.

Julien Eustache went home to meet his maker on Monday, December 20, 2010 in Livingston, NJ. "Though he is gone, he is not forgotten. For his memory will be kept in our hearts forever!"

Julien leaves to mourn and cherish his memories: his loving children, Guy, Mirlande, and Marie Carmelle Eustache, Monique, Jacques, and Daphnee Lacroix, Moliere Brusild; cherished grandchildren, Jennifer, Jeffrey, Carine, Julis, and Stephen Lindsay, Hans Peter Rosier, Johnathan Greg, and Derrick, Jamar, Vincent, Nickkita, Dominique Myrthil and Nathalie Philippeaux, Jacques, Jr., Kirsten, Jade and Julien Lacroix, and Stacy Brusild; great grandchildren, Nathaniel Myrthil, Khristie Cherizad and Leila Eustache; his dear sister, Viergenie Eustache; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep:
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow:
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain:
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the
Morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there: I did not die.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
