Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Reflections of Life

Lillian Veronica Moultrie-Drayton was born November 24, 1968 in Jersey City, NJ to Edward Lee and the late Cynthia Ann Moultrie. Lillian was called home to be with the Lord on December 27, 2010.

Lil was the first born child of five daughters to the late Cynthia Ann Moultrie. Lil was educated in the Jersey City and Newark Public School system and graduated from Weequahic High School in 1987.

Lil married the love of her life, Mr. Ron Drayton on September 20, 1999 and was a wonderful mother to her eight children and her four grandchildren. Lil relocated to Allentown, PA in 2007 and was a dedicated worker for the United States Postal Service for the last ten years of her life.

Lil leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Ron Drayton; her eight children, Steven, Stephanie, Saniah, Latifah, Marcella, Brianna, Ron and Cameron; her four grandchildren, Sadiq, Nevaeh, Iyannah and Velma her four sisters, Kym of Newark NJ, Lynnette (Dorian) Welch of North Carolina, Keisha (James) Brown of Newark and Terri (Alvin) Council of Newark, NJ; her sixteen nieces and nephews, Derrick, Shaquanah, Tasha, Macellas, Tarell, Tamara, Tawanna, Anthony, Jalil, Jayshawn, Kiara, Iesha, Jayla, Jayden, Keyonna, Keson and Keshawn; eight grand nieces and nephews, Shyquan, Zahir, Maurice, Jaziah, Khali, Ka'lyla, Kyasia and Durrell; and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

Lillian was preceded in death by her mother, Cynthia Ann Moultrie, her step-father, Melvin Roberts and her grandparents, Kenyon and Willie Mae Bowman.
