Obituary

Edith Moore was born November 11, 1939 in New York City. Her parents are the late Lena and Frank Moore.

Edith was a devoted mother to Benjamin Brazier, III “Bennie”, William Moore “Bo” and Augustus Moore “Gus” and so many others too numerous to mention.

She was preceded in passing by two of her sons, Bennie and Bo, along with her devoted and loving companion, Eugene Richardson.

Edith, known to most as “Ma,” acquired her education within the New York City Public School system.

She retired from Harlem Hospital as a Dietary Nutritionist.

Edith was a phenomenal woman. She was vibrant, fun-loving and caring to those close to her heart. She was outgoing and enjoyed traveling and gambling, especially her scratch offs.

Edith was a strong-willed and determined woman who never backed down from any person, challenge or situation and we all loved and appreciated her for it. To those close to her, she would give her everything, and today we each keep our own special part of her heart. Her ability to give you the truth (honest and blunt – like it or not) was the part of her character that everyone (friends or not) respected. She was a for real woman in everything she said and did!

She battled with cancer for five years and the Lord ended her suffering and called her home on January 7, 2011.

Edith leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Augustus “Gus” Moore; her two sisters, Marlena Flager and Augusta Bouldin; her brother, Kenneth Moore and his wife, Juanita; her grandchildren, Antwaun, William, Shameka, Terrell, Sharell, Vaughn, Shamia, Dawniece, Jemal, Tawana, Jaquel, Willie and Courtney; twenty-two great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members, friends and a special life-long friend, Benjamin Brazier, Jr (affectionately known as “Hatchet”).

God's Word

Mother

To one who bears the sweetest name
And adds luster to the same,
Long life to her for there's no other
Who takes the place of my dear mother

~ Love Your Son, Gus

God doesn't give you the people you want
He gives you the people you need to help you, to hurt you, to leave you, to love you and to make you into the person you're meant to be.

When God takes something from your grasp, He's not punishing you but merely opening your hands to receive something better.

Friendship brings beauty to our days, Joy to our world, Once in a while there's a friendship that is wonderful right from the start
Once in a while there's a friendship that brings Special Joy to the heart Once in a while a friendship is made that will last a lifetime through I'm so thankful a friendship like that is the kind I've shared with you

Acknowledgement
