Precious Memories

Reflections of Life

Steven Wilson was born on March 11, 1981 at St. Michael's Medical Center in Newark, NJ.

Steven graduated from Irvington High School, he was a member of the Gospel Choir and served as a member of the Board of Education of Students. He continued his education at Seton Hall Law School in South Orange. He also attended Rutgers University and Essex County Community College. He was in the Newark Community Choir and the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra Community Choir.

Steven was a faithful member of the Renaissance Church of God in Christ, located in Rahway, New Jersey, where he served on the Deacon and Trustee Board. He was the leader of the Praise and Worship service, the Assistant Sunday School Teacher, and a member of the Pastor Aide Committee.

Steven leaves to cherish his memories: his loving and devoted mother, Sarah Wilson; father, George McFadden; brother, Christopher Wilson; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. For twelve years he was employed at Shoprite, he also worked for H&R Block in Irvington, NJ.

Precious Son

I wish I could see you one more time, come walking through my door.

But I know that is impossible.

I will hear your voice no more.

*I know you can feel my tears,
and you don't want me to cry.*

Yet my heart is broken because I can't understand why.

Someone so precious had to die.

I pray that God will give me strength and somehow get me through as I struggle with this heartache that was caused by losing you.

Lord, I am burring the one I love.

The one to whom you allowed me to give birth.

Thank you for the few years we had here on this earth.

I am not ready for this. Spirit of God please help me accept what I cannot undo.

*Let me know the joy of your strength
as I look only to you.*

Loving Mom
