Obituary

Renee D. Walker-Linnen was born February 10, 1949, in Harlem, New York to the late William and Blanche Walker, Sr.

She received a formative education at Laurinburg Institute High School and obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Sociology and later a Master's in Educational Counseling from Fordham University.

As a young woman she was employed at Bell Telephone Company and Summer Youth Employment Programs. Because of her love for young people she perused her love of education and later became a devoted teacher, working with the Board of Education as a Special Ed teacher where she retired in 2009, after 32 years of being a teacher par excellence. To her credit she received numerous educational, social and civic awards.

Renee possessed both a brilliant mind and a beautiful heart. She was a faithful mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend. She loved spending time with her family and sharing her interests such as reading, karaoke, jigsaw puzzles, boxing, playing spades, barbecuing, and matching her wits with the best of them as she played along with the contestants of Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. She also loved music, dancing and celebrating Christmas.

Renee 's life changing experience happened when she received the Lord Jesus as her Lord and Saviour. She joined Greater Central Baptist Church and later became a member of Morning Star Full Gospel Assembly. In Morning Star she dedicated her time to tutor our children to assist them in passing their school midterms. She indeed touched the lives of many.

Renee leaves to cherish her memory; her former spouse, Abraham; her three daughters, Shajauna, Nikki, and Renee; her grandchildren, Bianca, and William; her siblings, Paula, Denise, Diane, Kathy, Faye, Wayne, Penny, Craig, Ramona, and Rodney; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. Renee was preceded in death by her parents in love Paul and Ethel Singleton; and her siblings; William H. Walker, Jr., Charles E. Walker, Ronald L. Walker, Patricia L. Walker, Paula Singleton, Adrian Singleton, and Paul Singleton, Jr.

“The Master Called”

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My Loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Acknowledgement

During a time like this we realize how much our family & friends really mean to us...
Your expression of sympathy will always be remembered.
God Bless You!
