Obituary

Paul Orlando Lewis was born on June 23, 1962 to the late Joel Lewis and Delores Jordan in Jersey City, New Jersey. Paul departed this life on Saturday, January 15, 2011 in Palisades General Hospital in North Bergen, New Jersey.

“Fats”, as he was affectingly known by family and friends, was raised in Jersey City and received his education at P.S. #15 and Henry Snyder High School in his hometown. He was also a graduate of Job Corps in Edison, New Jersey where he received his certification as a brick layer.

Paul became a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in the early 1970’s. Paul worked alongside Pastor Martin with younger children in the church’s summer program. He had a great love for children, assisting his siblings in raising their children. Paul was an awesome cook and worked in various restaurants. Fats loved Hip Hop and the Notorious Biggie Smalls was his favorite artist.

Fats was predeceased by his parents and sister, Alma Jordan.

Surviving to cherish Paul’s precious memory are: three loving brothers, Yusef Id-Deen (Bridget) of Mass., Anthony Lewis of New York and Kevin Lewis (Brenda); three loving sisters, Denita Lewis (Richard), Jerrilyn Lewis (Lamar) of Mass. and Andrea Lewis (Eddie) of Jersey City, NJ; beloved grandmother, Veleria Jordan; three honored uncles, Michael Jordan of Hoboken, NJ, Allen Dunbar and Joe Willie Royal of Florida; three adored aunts, Veleria Jordan, Evangelist Ida Wilson and Lee Dunbar all of Jersey City, NJ; dear family friend, Harry Thompson of Jersey City, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
