“Home At Last”

We are all God’s children,
From the morning hour of birth,
He lets us live and laugh and love.
And have our day on earth.
He guards us through the afternoon,
Till sunset’s rays are cast,
Then one by one, with gentle words,
He calls us home at last.
Lovingly Submitted,
~The Family~

Obituary

Rosemary Wilkins was born on March 26, 1951 to the late June Humphrey and Mattie McKinney in Chesnee, South Carolina. She departed this life on January 13, 2011 at Schervier Nursing Care Center in Riverdale, New York.

Rosemary was a resident of the Bronx, New York and had lived in New York City for forty-two years. She graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn, New York and attended the City University of New York where she studied Liberal Arts.

Rose married William Wilkins in 1979. She was a loving wife, caring mother and housewife. To have known Rose was to have loved her. She had an open heart and loving spirit which led all to embrace her. She was thoughtful and compassionate, yet was never one to shy away from confrontation. Her unique spirit will be missed by all who knew her.

Rose leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, William Wilkins (Bronx, NY); two sons, Kareem Wilkins (Poughkeepsie, NY) and Tykeem McKinney (Bronx, NY); a daughter, Angenlina Wilkins (Bronx, NY); two brothers, Marvin McKinney (Queens, NY) and Sam McKinney (Brooklyn, NY); three sisters, Carolyn McKinney (Manhattan, NY), Elane McKinney (Brooklyn, NY) and Dianne McLaughlin (Bronx, NY); two grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*My little angel you've just
Walked on ahead of me
And I've got to understand
You must release the ones you love
And let go of their hand
I try and cope the best I can
But I'm missing you so much
If I could only see you
And once more feel your touch
Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me
Don't worry I'll be fine
But now and then I swear I feel
Your hand slip in to mine.*
