Obituary

Marilyn Swindell McLean was the youngest daughter of the late George and Hattie Ann Gibson Swindell. Marilyn was born on November 24, 1938 in Laurinburg, NC.

Marilyn obtained her education from Laurinburg Institute and Lincoln Heights School where she graduated in the class of 1957.

Marilyn relocated to New York City in 1957 where she established her residency. Marilyn was employed with the New York City Department of Environment Protection for over twenty years where she retired.

Marilyn was an amazing woman who touched the lives of most people she met. She was very outspoken and believed in sharing her opinions when she believed it could help. Marilyn had a passion for singing and a profound love for her family and friends. Marilyn practiced living life to the fullest.

On Wednesday, January 19, 2011, Marilyn transitioned into eternal life, leaving a legacy of love.

She leaves to cherish her memory: husband, James Earl McLean; a son, James Larry McLean; a daughter, Sandra McLean; other children, Earl and Keith Swindell, Harold Grant and Peggy Phillips Wright; five grandchildren, LaToya, James III, Jaime, Jocelyn and Kevin Brown; other grandchildren, Ayame Woodyear, Crystal Williams, Johnathan Goins and Khari Taper.

Dear Family and Friends,

I want you to know that I have moved. I received a call from God, the Chief Architect, who informed me that my new house is ready and I could move immediately. Well, my new home is finished and its such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a beautiful pearly gate.

There is peace, joy and happiness here with no more pain to bear, no strife or discontent. I could go on exploring around my new home but I have to get fitted for my wings. Let me give you my new address because I highly recommend you make plans to live here too.

Oh yeah! Let me tell you this , I don't have a telephone yet, but first call God. If you don't have His number, He is listed in the Good Book on every page. Contact Him.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for your kindness during a time of sorrow.
