Reflections of Life

Tyrell Scott Coleman was born on September 29, 1992 to Craig and Cynthia Coleman in Orange, NJ. An Angel of God came to carry him Home albeit much too soon for the Family and Friends that will truly miss him.

“Sometimes it’s hard to Understand Why Certain Things Must Be.

*But in His Wisdom God had Planned
Beyond our Powers to See.*

*So Looking Back with Tenderness
Along the Path we Trod.*

*We Cherish the Years We had with You
And Leave the Rest to God....”*

Tyrell was only with us for a short period but some believe that the best measure of a Life is not the Amount of time you spend on this Earth but the Amount of lives you “touch” while you are here. All that knew Tyrell understood just how many folks he truly touched just by being his happy-go-lucky, funny self. He never had to try too hard, it came natural to him, it was truly a Gift! Whether he was flashing that Signature Smile of his or passing out those warm hugs he became famous for Tyrell had a way of touching everyone he came in contact with. The Electricity of his presence brought a sense of “Happy” “that was unique to “Relly”.

Whether he was battling his brother on the latest video game or messing with his sister, just because, Tyrell always made you feel better about yourself. Tyrell could melt his parents hearts with a simple declaration of his love or drive them crazy with his outward bursts of energy that never seemed to stop. That was just Tyrell and we loved him for it. Having Tyrell around for the many Holidays and Steeler Games spent with family was always so special. He always added something that helped you look forward to the next time we would all be together.

When Tyrell became your Friend he was your Friend for life. He was known for playing practical jokes on his friends and could be counted on to bring the “funny” to any situation. Hanging out with Kurt, Jennifer, Christina and Roy created memories of laughter and good times that will last a lifetime. There are hundreds of other stories of Tyrell flashing that Smile and Electric Personality to bring a little Sunshine to each and everybody’s day. Some may wonder why Tyrell was always Smiling & Happy. Those that had the pleasure to know him understand that He simply knew how to Love. He loved life, he loved his family, he loved his friends and he loved being able to share that Love with all the Lives he touched in his short time with us. Tyrell will Forever live in the Hearts of those that experienced the blessing of his presence.

His Soul and Spirit is now Free to Soar and Smile on the lives of those he left behind. Those left not to mourn but to cherish his memories are: parents, Craig Sr. and Cynthia Coleman; siblings, Craig Jr. and Sarrena Coleman; grandparents, Dolores and Vance Taylor, Francine and Lemuel Judd and William Coleman Sr.; two great grandparents, FannieBell (Parish) Grant and Emma Barnes; aunts and uncles, Kim and Kevin Reid, Felicia Drye and Lemira Burnette, William Jr and Sheryl Coleman, Damon Coleman Sr. and Devin and Shawn Judd; cousins, Damon Jr., Daquil, Imani, Justin, Dawn, Idris, Russell, Tanya, Kia, Shanice, Patrick Jr., Marvin, Justin, Ebony, Lori, Anthony, Robin, Jessica, Michael, Alicia, Cortland, Tahid, Leon and Shawn; beloved friends, Kurt Swain, Roy Blaire, Jennifer Valle and Christina Martinez; numerous other relatives, friends and loved ones.

REMEMBER ME

To the Living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return;
To the angry, I was cheated.
But to the happy, I am at peace.
To the faithful, I have never left.
Talk to me, and I will hear,
your prayers, they comfort me,
your laughter makes me laugh,
but don't weep for me as I have my reward,
I am with the Father and he will never let me perish,
The Lord comforts me, and longs to comfort you.
So be happy my family and don't despair,
I am in good hands!

Thank You

There are no words that can adequately express our gratitude for the many acts of kindness extended to us during this time of Sadness. May God Bless You, one by one, just as you have been a blessing to Us.

Sincerely, The Family
