Obituary

King Walter Jones was born March 29, 1922 in Rocky Mount, North Carolina to the late Patrick Henry and Hattie Belle Jones.

He was educated at Pittman Grove School in Battleboro, NC. At the age of eighteen, King entered the United States Army during World War II. After he served in the infantry in the Pacific Islands he came to New York.

Soon after, he met and married Martha Ann, this union produced two sons, Michael and Kenneth. King also had four loving children, Evelyn, Tony, King Jr. and Sena.

He worked for many years for McGuire Chevrolet and there he developed many automotive mechanical skills. Also, briefly he worked as a school custodial worker. King was a jack of all trades.

King enjoyed visiting his family in North Carolina. He made many trips back and forth. He loved going fishing, playing cards and children. He liked joking around with you. He also loved helping people and was always there if you needed him.

King was a charming, reliable and honorable man. He will be greatly missed.

King had three brothers and one sister to precede him in death, Patrick, Joe, Charlotte and Matthew. His wife, Martha and son, Michael also preceded him in death.

He leaves to mourn: his children, Evelyn, Tony, Darryl, Kenneth and Sena; his two brothers, James and Robert; one sister, Lurania; grandchildren, Nicole, Kenyatta, Kawana, Matthew (A.J.), Roshawn, Darrell, Akeem, Vicky, Taniqua and Kemha; four great grandchildren, Hakeem, Nova, Alaysha, Kyanna and Baby Marie; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and dear friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
