Reflections of Life

Robin Ann Norman was born February 29, 1960 to Willie Mae White and Eli Washington. She departed this life on January 24, 2011 at fifty years of age.

Robin was raised in Newark, New Jersey where she also attended school and graduated.

During her life she worked for an outside agency preparing meals for the airlines at Newark International Airport for a few years. After that she went to school and became a Certified Nursing Assistant which led to being an employee for Genesis Health Care located in Parsippany, New Jersey in February 2001 up until her health declined this past year.

Robin truly was a wonderful, loving and caring mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, auntie, god sister and friend. She was also a very generous person putting her needs aside to help others.

Spending quality time with her family especially her grandchildren is one of the things she loved to do, along with that she enjoyed cooking and taking trips especially with Mr. John Tindell's annual Mother's Day Lobster Fest. She was a fun person to be around and will be greatly missed.

She was preceded in death by her son, Rashad Leroy Norman.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mom, Willie Mae White; her daughter, Kareemah Amirah Norman; brother, Terry Norman; grandchildren, Rashad Kabiir Jones and Nyla Tajada Kamari Norman; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*If Tears
Could Build A Stairway*

*If tears could build a stairway,
and memories were a lane,
I'd walk right up to heaven,
and bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken,
no time to say "goodbye",
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knows why.
My heart still aches with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you,
No one can ever know,
But now we know you want me
to mourn for you no more.
To remember all the happy times,
life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today,
A hallowed place within my heart,
Is where you'll always stay.*
