The Way To Him I Know

*He knows my soul so weak and blind
So full of fear and mortal mind
And he will lead and I shall
Find the way to know him I know*

*He guides my steps and He knows best
He will not harm where he is blest
And so good night. I'll take my rest
Where sweet violets and roses grow*

Reflections of Life

Roy L. Danner

Roy L. Danner, 70, of Passaic, NJ, fell asleep in Jesus' arms on Thursday, February 3, 2011 at home. He was married to Nellie Wardell, who lovingly called him "Mr. D."

He was born in Washington, GA, to the late Lillie Mae Gresham-Goolsby and Charlie Danner.

Later, he relocated to New Jersey during the 60's, where he resided in Passaic. He was employed with R.A.P. Industries in Hackensack, NJ. Eventually, he became a truck driver and drove for many years. Known to his riding buddies as "Sly Dog", he was a member of the 7 Up Dogs Motorcycle Club.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1964 to 1967 during the Vietnam War.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Eddie Binns and Willie J. Gresham.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Nellie Danner; five children, Cathy, Roy Jr., Dwyane (Buster), James and Sharlet; ten grandchildren, one great grandchild and a host of nieces and nephews; his sisters, Lillie Jean Garnett (Atlanta, GA) and Barbara Gresham (Augusta, GA); and his brother, Bennie Goolsby Jr. (Washington, GA).

Reflections of Life

Leroy Wardell

Leroy Wardell was born in Prince Edwards County, Virginia on April 28, 1935 to the late Alfonzo Wardell Sr. and Pattie Edmonds Wardell. He was the second child of their ten children.

Roy grew up in Virginia, and at an early age, he accepted Jesus Christ. Roy moved to Passaic, NJ in the early 1960's. He was employed for thirty years by Scrap Iron and Metal Company in Garfield, NJ.

Roy was a quiet man. He lived a simple life. He arose every day before daylight and had a cup of tea. He spent his day in his own special kind of way at the corner coffee shop on Broadway.

Leroy entered into his eternal rest at age 75 on Thursday, February 3, 2011. No man knows the day or night; when death comes just be ready to take its flight. Roy loved his family, and he will be missed by them.

He leaves loving memories to: his mother, Pattie Wardell of NJ. He leaves behind three children, Leroy Wardell Jr., Darlene Wardell Hicks (Lewis) and Anthony Wardell. He also had nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, all of whom reside in Virginia. Roy had five sisters, Rebecca Sanders, Mable Womack, Patricia Gaddy (John) and Nellie Danner of New Jersey and Lucille Jones of Richmond, Virginia. He also had one brother, Raymond Wardell of New Jersey. Roy was preceded in death by two brothers, Alfonso Wardell Jr. and Otis Wardell, as well as one sister, Rosha Virginia Curtis. Roy also had one sister-in-law, Corrine Cobbs Wardell and four aunts, Alice Wright, Mary Blakely, Emma Edmonds and Lena Johnson. Roy had a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends who will miss him dearly.
