The Obituary

Juanita Marie Sullivan was born as Juanita Marie Bogar, the beloved daughter of Robert and Catherine Bogar. She was born on June 30, 1951 in Dothan, Alabama. She departed this life on February 8, 2011 at the University of Medicine and Dentistry Hospital in Newark, NJ. Juanita was the oldest of eight children. She was very protective of her family and friends. Juanita received her formal education in the Newark Public School System.

Juanita had a loving husband, Eugene Sullivan, two sons, Octavian Hall and Christian Bogar, and her daughter, Al-Nisa Bogar, who preceded her in death. She also leaves behind one daughter-in-law, LeGuana Joseph-Hall.

Juanita was also preceded in death by two brothers, Robert L. Bogar Jr. and Charles Bogar. She leaves behind precious memories: four brothers, Michael Bogar, Rock Bogar, Davey Bogar and Derrick Bogar; one sister, Teresa Bogar; seven grandchildren, four great grandchildren, three sisters-in-law; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
