A Celebration of Life

Eunice V. Alston was born on May 21, 1948 in Norfolk Virginia. to Mrs. Ruth and Curtis Lee Harris. Ruth and her children moved to N.Y.C. in 1950.

Eunice attended PS. 119, JHS 136, and graduated from Fashion Industries High School. She was employed by the United States Department of Education as an investigator until her retirement.

After she retired she attended the College of New Rochelle and graduated in 2005 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. The cornerstone of her life was her deep conviction for Christ she was always there to help anyone in need.

Eunice was a dedicated member and one time volunteer of the Drama Department of World Changers Church - New York with Pastors Creflo and Taffi Dollar.

A friendly, passionate, thoughtful, headstrong woman, Eunice valued all of her relationships greatly and had an amazing ability to help anyone through tough times using religious background and common sense.

Eunice was predeceased by her mother, Ruth Harris, son, Ulysses Alston, sister, Delores Jemott, and nephew, Granson Jose Santamaria, aunts, Hazel Anderson and Naomi Williams.

She is survived by: her son, Ahmed Spinner; brother, Charles E. Harris and sister, Phyllis Chaney; cousin, Sandra Hildreth; and a host of other relatives and friends who love her and will cherish their memories always.

Cherished Love of a Mother

A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and a sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring what may come for nothing can destroy it or take that love away.

It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking, and it never fails or falters – even though the heart is breaking,
it believes beyond believing, when the world around condemns.

And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems.

It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation.

A many splendored miracle man cannot understand,
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

In loving memory...

Your Son, Ahmed Spinner & Brother Charles E. Harris
