Obituary

William Geno Corbin a.k.a. “Petey” was born on April 30, 1985 to Donald Corbin and Joanne Fagan in New York City.

William grew up in Harlem and attended Mt. Carmel Holy Rosary School, he then completed his education in the New York City Public School system.

William was a “laid back” young man. He was quiet and wore a smile that let you know everything will be alright. He enjoyed hanging out with his older cousins and his friends from the “Burg”.

William worked for 5th Avenue Bin Cleaning Company as a Maintenance Worker and Dean and Deluca Restaurant.

William will go on to join his late grandmothers, Amanda Harris-Fagan and Christine Corbin.

William leaves to mourn: his mother, Joanne; father, Donald; grandfather, William Fagan; brothers, Darnell, Charles, Dameion, DJ, Asa and Donald; aunts, Betty, Crystal, Annette and Sandy; uncle, Ronald; the love of his life, Alexis and her two children, Ashley and Alijah; first cousins, Kima, Tuffy, Shakina, Donneisha, Tonnisha, Nowell, Raven, Keona, Sharief, Chad, Shanell, Barbra, BJ, Damonni, Justin, Lil Ronald and Wakiem; good friends, Anthony “Dribbles” and Jordan; and a host of cousins, other family members and friends.

Sleep on Petey until we meet again.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave". The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you".
