Obituary

William Henry Langhorne was born on April 17, 1930 in Manhattan, New York to Rosetta and Jack Langhorne.

He lived his teenage years in New York City. There he met his beloved wife, Geraldine Wilson Langhorne and to this union four children were born. The couple decided to leave New York City to buy a house in Englewood, NJ where one more child was born.

William Henry Langhorne was employed by Eric Steiner Typewriter Repair Shop where he worked as a typewriter repair tech for forty years. He retired from Eric Steiner at the young age of fifty-nine. He continued working at Temple Emanu-EL in Englewood, NJ for six years.

His wife of forty-nine years, Geraldine Langhorne passed away on March 4, 1997.

William Henry Langhorne is survived by: his daughters, Emily R. Harper of Englewood, NJ and Belinda C. Drumgo of Marietta, GA; his sons, William H. Langhorne, Jr. of Englewood, NJ, Walter T. Langhorne of Englewood, NJ and Gerald S. Langhorne of Lyndhurst, NJ; one sister, Nalini Langhorne of New York City; two brothers, Milton Langhorne of New York City and Justus Langhorne of Alabama; nine grandchildren, nine great grandchildren; and a host of cherished relatives and friends.

I Am Resting

*I've parted this life my loved one,
But worry not for I am not gone,
I am merely resting.
Don't cry or mourn
For God is with you and in your hearts.
Carry on.
We will miss each other,
But remember God is with us all.
Be strong my loved one,
For I am not gone,
but merely resting.*
