Obituary

Juanita Felton was born in Norfolk, Virginia to the proud parents of Earnest and Cora Felton on March 9, 1951. Juanita was the eldest of seven children.

The family moved to New York in 1958, settling in the borough of Brooklyn where she graduated from Eastern District High School. Upon graduation, Juanita acquired a position in data processing as a magnetic tape librarian.

Juanita met Mr. John Person in 1990 and maintained a respectful and loving relationship for twenty plus years.

Juanita's hobbies were that she loved to take walks on 125th street in Harlem and shop there. Juanita also loved to read the Daily News, The New York Times, and various other printed lectures.

Juanita touched our lives and will be surely missed. Juanita will always be in our hearts.

Juanita leaves to mourn: John her companion; a sister, Lynnice; a brother, Leary; a brother-in-law, Bill; a sister-in-law, Shirley; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
