Obituary

Barbara L. Jackson was born on December 2, 1954 to the late George and Mary H. Shanks in Newark, New Jersey.

She attended Burnet St. School and graduated from West Side High School in 1972. She was also educated at Montclair State College from 1972 - 1974 she was a English major.

She was employed as a Teacher's Aide at Newton Street School in Newark, NJ from 1975 - 1976, also a Security Guard for many years in Montclair, NJ and a corrections officer at Northern State Prison, Newark, NJ for thirteen years.

Barbara enjoyed reading, talking, shopping, lots of traveling, cooking and cookouts. Her favorite musicians were Luther Vandross, Temptations and Sam Cooke.

She met her husband of thirty-five years, Daniel Jackson in 1971, they were married on December 20, 1975. They later moved to East Orange, New Jersey in 1977.

Barbara was known for saying "What" "Pretty Much" and "Telling the inmates to get out of her hallway".

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband of thirty-five years, Daniel Jackson; sister, Sandra R. Shanks of Newark, NJ; god children, aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, coworkers and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

For my wife, Barbara
I love and miss you,
you are always in my heart.

For my sister, Barbara your Boo-Boo loves
you very much.
