Obituary

Today we mourn Gwendolyn Pearl Jackson-Bethea born April 17, 1970 to Earlie M. Worthen and Clifford Jackson. She entered into heaven March 10, 2011. Gwendolyn better known as “Gwen” was raised in Newark, NJ.

Gwendolyn graduated from East Side High in 1988. She furthered her education at the College of NJ, majoring in Nursing. She attended UMDNJ and received a diploma in Surgical Technology. She also attended Union County College, Elizabeth General School of Nursing and Kean University.

Gwen worked at St. Barnabas Medical Center as a Operating Room Technician and then became a registered nurse. She exceeded to become a Central Sterile Processing Department Manager. In 2007 she began working at Johnson and Johnson as a Clinical Education Consultant until she was called home.

Gwendolyn was joined into holy matrimony to Herbert Bethea.

Gwen was a loving and caring person. She was very patient and polite. Gwen loved her family very much. She was very intelligent and outspoken. Gwen would give you the shirt off her back. She was generous, kind, and would help you in any way. Gwen was a devoted wife with a beautiful soul.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Herbert Bethea; her mom, Earlie Worthen; her dad, Clifford Jackson her three sisters, Patricia Nundra, Albaline Worthen-Caraballo (brother in-law Roberto Caraballo) and Shelia Jackson; one brother, Willie Nundra; one godson Roberto Caraballo Jr.; one aunt, Ceola Moore; four uncles, Claud Jr. Harris, Hubert Harris, Will Harris and W.C. Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
