She was preceded in death by her parents, and her very special sister, Ora Lee (Cora) Jones, her brothers, Charles and John L. and her niece, Katherine Coates.

Vi came to New York with her family at the age of 9. She was educated in the New York City Public Schools. Vi was a long time resident of the Historical Dunbar Apartments. She worked many years in the garment industry in New York.

Vi leaves to cherish her memory, her loyal, loving faithful nephew, Connell Coates (Judy), who took tender care of her, took care of her business, and visited her every day, even when his own health was not the best. Connell who was often accompanied by his wife, Judy, who also loved and cared for Vi. Connell's fond sister-in law, Susie Brewster was a steadfast friend to Vi, and Connell.

To Those I Love

To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."
