Obituary

Marcelin Charles was born on December 29, 1959 in Gonaives, Haiti to proud mother Geanna Charles in La Profidence Hospital.

Marcelin grew up and attended a majority of his schooling in Haiti, but in a quest for a better life for himself he and his family decided to migrate to the United States. Once here Marcelin dedicated himself to furthering his education and mastering of the English language.

Marcelin found a job as a Taxi driver, he would always tell us how much he enjoyed his job because it allowed him to meet new people, travel to different places and getting paid every day didn't hurt either.

Marcelin was known for his great sense of humor and wonderful smile that would light up the room. He never let situations stop him from being happy in life. Marcelin treated all people equally even through his spirit we can still feel him. Just thinking about the way Marcelin laughed brings so many memories, because all of his children laugh the same way, loud. Such a kind spirited and gentle man Marcelin was a very strict parent. He was strict to guide us, and to teach us the world so that we would never have to struggle in life and most importantly for all of us to have better futures. Marcelin Charles was a great father to his children and an even better husband to his wife. For this among many other things Marcelin Charles will be truly missed.

He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: his wife, Rolande Charles; three daughters, Roselande, Cynthia, and Cyndina Charles; two sons, Roshelyn, and Ronex Charles; niece, Miriam Joseph; and a host of other relatives and friends.

"Dad you may be gone, but you will never be forgotten"

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
