Obituary

Rakeem Jerome Beatty was born on October 19, 1989 in the city of Newark, NJ at the Newark Beth Israel Hospital. Rakeem was educated in the Newark School system.

Rakeem enjoyed playing video games. He liked to experience things to cook for everyone to taste it. He was a quiet person and most of the time stayed to his self.

He was very known and loved by his friends and family. The relationship that Rakeem and his girlfriend, La'Quanna had, came a lovely baby girl named Onyae' Si-nai Ty'Jae Beatty, born March 21, 2011 weighing 7lbs 6 ½ oz.

Rakeem leaves behind his mother, Jacequeline Beatty; father, Troy Jerome Robinson; his daughter, Onyae'; girlfriend, La'Quanna Garrett; sisters, Ayesh Simone Beatty and Aniya Bryan; grandmother, Mary Beatty; grandfather, Lero Robinson; his aunts, Judy, Jane, Robin and Stacey; his uncles, aunties and step-father, Eddie Parker; a host of Moody, Beatty, Brown, Robinson and Glover families; and a host of cousins, uncles, other family members and friends. He will be truly missed.

We Love you,
My son, Rakeem Beatty

Lost But Now You're Found

What do I do now? What do I do when our daughter gets older and she asks "mommy where's my daddy?" How would I respond to that heartbreaking question? As days go by, I think about you more and more, hurting because of the fact that I know it's impossible for me to see you face to face, but then when I look at our daughter; your face is as clear as day. To make the long story short, I really hope you're looking down on me and your daughter watching over us every step we take with your protective shield. You will be dearly missed by myself and our new creation Onyae' Si-nai Ty'Jae Beatty.

*Love You Always,
La'Quanna*

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindness of words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
