Obituary

We are here today to celebrate the life of Vera Loraine Davis who was born September 16, 1951. God called her home on March 29, 2011 to rest after fifty-nine years of loyal service.

Vera was born in Harlem Hospital in NYC. During her early years she spent in Brooklyn, NY, where she attended the public school system.

Vera worked on numerous jobs until she discovered her passion for Health Care in 1989. She worked with the developmental disability. She loved caring for people with disability's. She was there to help others because of her humble and sweet personality.

She was preceded in death by her father, mother, brother and aunt.

She leaves to cherish and celebrate her memory: her husband, Kenneth Butler; sister, Angie Gardener; other foster sisters; and a host of friends and loved ones.

Vera was a dedicated Christian. She was baptized in the church at an early age.

She will surely be missed.

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

*As you complete this temporary journey you have embraced our hearts Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold .
We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence. The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!*

Because The Angels Came

*No more grief or sorrow, no more suffering or pain,
now there is everlasting peace because the angels came. Only God knows what is best and He gently holds my hand . Guiding me to a better place because the angels came. When the sun rises tomorrow and I answer not my name, Please don't cry Rejoice with me because the angels came. I now can rest in peace as I never could before. Answered the gentle knock of the angels at my door. So please don't mourn for me as new wings I now claim, I can take my flight to heaven because the angels came.*
