Obituary

Lucille Brown-Cunningham, known to everyone as “Sister” was born to the late Evans and Dorothy Brown on July 15, 1932.

Lucille was married to the love of her life, Alfred Cunningham. She received her education through the New York City Public School system, and graduated from Seward Park High School.

Among many things Lucille enjoyed, was traveling. Whenever you told her about a trip, she was packed and ready to go. She and her sister, Laura stayed on the go. You could find Lucille at Empire City Casino every Wednesday.

Lucille worked for Social Services for twenty-five years, until her retirement. The next day she was packed and ready to go on a trip. She enjoyed talking to her good friend, Pearl Scott about the Soap Operas and they would talk at least ten times a day.

There always have been strong family ties but her two closest nieces were, her namesake, Lucille René Brown and Robin Brown-Pierra whom were with her throughout her entire illness.

Lucille leaves to cherish her precious memories: her husband, Alfred Cunningham; her two sisters, Laura Brown-Simmons and Loretta Brown; her brother, Evans Brown (Sandra Brown - wife); one aunt, Lillie Mae Fountain; her nieces, Lucille René Brown and Robin Brown-Pierra; niece/Goddaughter, Dorothy Brown; nephews, Louis, William, Robert and Kenneth; Goddaughter, Belita Myers; good friend, Pearl Scott; her long, long time friend, Ella Mae Rainy; grand nieces and nephews; there are many other cousins and family members too numerous to name but her favorite cousin was Rose Williams better known to her and the family as “Lady”.

A serious point was always made known to her family that she wanted to be cremated, and her family will strongly abide by her wishes.

We love you so dearly but God loves you best and chose you for His flower garden. So sleep on Lucille and take your well-deserved rest until we meet again.

John 14:1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
