Obituary

Mamie Hudson Wallace, of the Bronx, New York died Sunday, April 3, 2011 at Jacobi Medical Center. Mamie Wallace was born on Daufuskie Island, South Carolina, September 30, 1921, to William and Sarah Hudson. At an early age she decided that she wanted to serve the Lord, and was steadfast in her faith till the end. In March of 1946 she married George Wallace in Miami, Florida, and there union produced six children. She later relocated to New York in 1961 where she continued to raise her children. After her children were grown she returned to Miami, Florida.

She became a member of Jesus People Ministries Church International in Miami, Florida. Mamie loved to travel and explore the things around her, and also enjoyed sewing things for her family like festive Christmas pillows. She enjoyed helping others, which made her job as a Home Healthcare Aide an easy choice. She retired in 1980 from her job as a Home Healthcare Aide in Dade County, Florida.

A scripture that Mamie loved was Psalms 23. "The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever."

Mamie Wallace loved her family, and was loved by her family. Her children, George Wallace, Georgiana Flowers, Joe Wallace, Linda Wallace, Loretta McCaskill, and Audrey Jadoo survived by Mamie. eighteen grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren; and three great great grandchildren also survive her. She will be forever missed.

Dear Grandma

If love were a picture it would be of you.
You have always watched out for me no matter what I went through.

When I needed to talk you were always there with so many kind words and a story to share.

You listened to me, and gave me advice
sometimes fun and sometimes nice.

You always let me know that family was important, and that it was something to cherish every waking moment.

I wish I could stop time now, and let you know that you meant to me

You are one of the greatest grandmother's even if only just to me.
