Obituary

Born to Clarence Morris, Sr. and Pauline White Morris, Bernard was the youngest of eleven children. He was raised by his older sisters. He leaves to cherish his memories: one daughter, Jeneen Morris; one grandson, Kevin Morris; two sisters and two brothers-in-law (Florence and Jerald Fontnel, Bronx, NY and Pauline and Wilmouth George, Flushing, NY); godson, Michael Fontnel; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends; along with two good friends, Barbara Ford and Beatrice Hunt.

Bernard had numerous jobs as a cook, laundry room worker, and elevator operator. He also worked in the garment district. Bernard was a fun loving guy who enjoyed sports and a good laugh. He created an atmosphere of joy and laughter. Uncle Bernard passed away on March 29, 2011 at his second home in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

*You did not say I'm leaving
You did not say good-bye
You left before we knew it
Only God knows why*

*In life we loved you dearly,
And in death we love you still
You will always hold a place in our hearts
That no one else can fill
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you,
When God took you home
"We shall meet again"*

I Need the Quiet

I needed the quiet so he drew me aside. Into the shadows where we could confide. Away from the bustle where all the day long, I hurried and worried when active and strong. I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled. But gently, so gently, my cross he upheld and whispered so sweetly of spiritual things, tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings.

To heights never dreamed of when active and gay. He loved me so greatly, he drew me away. I needed the quiet. No prison my mind. But a beautiful valley of blessings instead. A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.

I needed the quiet so he drew me aside.
