Obituary

Gloria A. Wood but to everyone she knew it was Carol. Carol was born on July 2, 1959 one of twins to Lucille McGee and Albertos McGee at Flowers Hospital in New York. Her brother, Victor McGee who she loved very much predeceased her in 2008.

Carol was a Phlebotomist for many years. She worked at several New York hospitals. She retired at memorial Sloan-Kettering in 2007 due to Sarcoidosis.

Carol loved her family and loved to eat. Carol opened her heart and door to everyone, she would help you anyway she could. All she wanted was for everyone to get along and love each other.

Everyone loved Carol, she made you laugh, she made you cry. A day at Carol's was an eventful day but a joyful day.

Carol leaves to cherish fond memories: her husband, Willie Wood; three daughters, Rayshon (Shon) McGee, Krystle (Rell) Wood and Precious Wood; her mother, Lucille McGee; father, Albertus McGee; four grandchildren, Amere, Kevin, Floyd and Daryl; niece, Tamesha McGee; three sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Carol will be missed by everyone whose life she touched.

The Love For My Grandma

The love I had for her was extremely strong

When she spoke to me I knew she wasn't wrong

This poem is written from my heart
Grandma you're in heaven

But we'll never be apart

She's in a better place now

We all honestly know

She will continuously look over the family with the love she will show.

She left the world peacefully and loved

Remember everybody she is watching from above.

Love, Kevin
Her oldest grandson
