Reflections of Life

James Roland Etheridge, son of the late Lewis and Claudia (Paxton) Etheridge was born in Edenton, North Carolina on February 3, 1924.

He migrated to New York at the age of sixteen. After attending Boys High School he enlisted in the Merchant Marines during World War II and continued that service retiring after twenty years.

He joined the New York Transit Bus Authority, retiring in 1985 after twenty years of service.

James married Gladys Louther in 1958. They have one son, James Roland Etheridge, Jr.

James is survived by his wife, son, nieces, nephews, cousins and the many people who loved him.

Interment

William C. Doyle Veterans Cemetery
Arneytown, New Jersey

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

Ecclesiastes 3:1,2&11

Acknowledgement
