Obituary

Mrs. Sally Hayes Mahone was born to the late John Hayes and Bessie Page Hayes on February 28, 1914 in Dillon, South Carolina. She departed this life on April 14, 2011 at Jewish Home and Community Center, 120 West 106th Street Manhattan, New York.

Sally attended Dillon Elementary School where she completed 10th grade, she received the good citizen award, an award she was very proud of.

Sally was a lifetime member of Abyssinian Baptist Church, she was active and hard working, and showed her love and dedication to God through her attendance in church.

Sally was employed as a School Lunch Helper with the Board of Education, where she retired after eighteen years of service. She resided at 120 West 138 from 1943 to 2009, and in 2009 she resided at the Jewish Home and Community Center, where she would spend her remaining days.

Mrs. Sally Hayes Mahone is the fourth of seven children, John, James, Floyd, Annamae, Emma and Maggie. She is predeceased by her husband, Godfrey Mahone; her daughter, Yvonne Mahone Hamilton; and a great granddaughter.

She is survived by: her four grandchildren, Scott Mahone of Manhattan, Bobbi Adams of Charlotte, NC, William Adams of New York and Helena Adams of Manhattan; four great grandchildren; special family friends, Jacqueline Hansard of Bronx, Dorothy Kemp of Manhattan and Patricia Garey of Manhattan; her best friend, Eleanor Harris of New York; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Come To Me

God saw you was getting tired. Relief was soon to be
He put his arms around you, and said come with me
Although we love you dearly, we could not make you stay
With tearful eyes we watched you, as you slowly passed away.
A golden heart stopped beating our beloved "Sally" is at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
We know you are in heaven, from sickness you are set free.
We know we will see you when he whispers "come with me"

In Appreciation

We are grateful to our church family, friends and relatives for all expressions of kindness shown to us during our bereavement. Your cards, words of comfort and everything you have done has helped to lighten our sorrow. A special Thank You.
