Obituary

Georges Julien Dougé was born on May 29, 1951 to Georgette Serran and Pierre Eli Dougé in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. He departed this life on April 14, 2011 at his home West Orange, New Jersey.

He graduated from Verona High School, and completed retail trade training. He worked in the retail industry, and received meritorious awards and letters of recognition for outstanding service.

Georges had the perfect temperament for retail. He was outgoing, warm, kind, cordial, helpful, and very sociable. He was nicknamed the "Mayor" in his neighborhood (Silver Spring, Maryland). Georges' personality was infectious, and he impacted many lives. He was wealthy in all the ways that matter.

Georges was family oriented. He loved his family; his friends, good food, laughter and above all he loved God the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. He wrote many poems about the Trinity and the Savior, Jesus Christ. He was a cherished son, beloved brother, and child of God.

Georges is survived by: his mother, Georgette Dougé; special aunt, Alma Serran; brothers, Max Alex Dougé (Mireille), François Dougé (Kathleen), Eric Dougé (Danielle), Jacques Réginald Dougé (Dorothy); sisters, Reine Nicole Reid (Raymond), Marie Françoise Dhansis (Joseph), Frédérique Schutt-Ainé (Joseph Claude), Dominique Harris (James); cousins, Rosine Dougé (Davies/Juan), Euphrosine Archer (Emmanuel), Maxime Dougé, (Leonore), Rodini Dougé, Magalie Dougé (Miller/William), Judith Dougé Aristilde (Evans); special friends, Béthie Normil Ferdinand (Leslie), Française Pinthière; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, grand nieces and nephews.

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little - but not for too long;
and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.

~Krie
