Obituary

Norma Bernice Grant was born April 27, 1935 in Newark, NJ to Celeste and Fredrick Powell. She was among six siblings, Martha Dennis, Joan Miller, Celeste Wright, Fredrick Powell, Jr., Franchot Powell and Ryland Powell.

After high school, she attended Man Power Trade School where she studied to become an LPN in Nursing. Soon after, she married the man whom she shared over fifty years of marriage with, Willie Grant. Together they lovingly raised three children, Ricardo Harris, Linda Harris and Phyllis Rida.

Our beloved Norma was the matriarch of our family, the loving grandmother to Devon, Ricci, Alea and Khairah; great grandmother to Darius, Martavius, Amari, Tamia and Tasir.

She was known for her love of shopping, words of encouragement, generosity, bluntness and among all her nurturing manner. She will be deeply missed, not only by her family and friends, but by the QVC Channel as well.

Nana

*God saw that you were getting tired
He put his arms around you
And whispered, "its ok, come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched
And saw you slip away.
Even though we wanted to hold on tight
We couldn't let you stay.
No more pain, no more tears
No more crying, no more fears.
God has you now so sweet dreams
You are free.*

*I Love You Nana

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.*
