Obituary

Carlo Azor was born in Port Au Prince, Haiti on May 8, 1954, and is the son of Silvany Victorin and Roland Azor. Carlo spent the first half of his life in Port Au Prince where he graduated from College Classic high school. He migrated to the United States in 1978, where he embarked on a new journey. He attended Staten Island College where he took classes in business. Carlo held various jobs, putting his hand in the community in a variety of ways. From being as ambitious to writing an innovative letter to President Ford, Carlo was always casting his net for a way to provide for his family. After the birth of his last son, he decided to start a business in Haiti, to support his family in Newark. Carlo was a devoted husband and loving father who held his family close to heart and was willing to do whatever necessary for them.

All those who knew Carlo knew he had a very calming, soothing demeanor. Although Carlo did not speak much, when he did he unveiled his passion for politics, society, life, and all things. He was courageous as well, a silent soldier who continued to push for his family no matter what. Carlo's generosity was something he shared with his closest friends and family. He was the anchor of his family and people flocked to him for support in need of good times and bad.

If people ever wanted to see the passionate side of Carlo all they would need to do is turn on Haitian news, CNN, or the soccer channel. Carlo was not a politician but if one were to watch him while Political Discussions were on, they would undoubtedly see that politics ignited a fire within him. If one were to turn on a soccer match and Brazil was playing, you could forget about it. Shouting, smiling, and pointing at the screen, Carlo loved to watch his team on the screen.

Carlo was a genuine man who wanted the best for his family, especially his children. This man cared deeply about the welfare of others who did not settle for anything less than to see his family proud. Carlo is survived by his loving wife of twenty four years, Marie Yolene Azor; children, Aly and Carl Azor and Carlo Cayemich.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his sisters, Marie Carmelle, Marie Rolande, Marie Rose, Denise, Doudoune, Mireille, Carole, Florence, Marie Michele; brothers, Jean Claude, Gerard, Patrick; other close family, Laventue Victorin, Steve Victorin, Jean LaFortune, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabl Mr. and Mrs. Claude Aubrey, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Drice, Jean Claude Elie, Fritz Prosper, Jean Robert Herard, Sergo Legros.

Carlo passed away suddenly on April 10, 2011. He will surely be missed by all who've been blessed to know and love him.

John 14:1-3

Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go and prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece. If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
