Obituary

Robin Kim Thompson affectionately known as “Kim” was born to the late Shirley Williams and her stepfather, Willie James Tate. She was born and raised in New York City. She has committed herself down here on earth but on April 22, 2011 God had called her to complete a mission that He has planned for her.

She left behind: three children, Sean, Shirley and Sade; a brother and his wife, Eric Keith Thompson and Sharon Bishop Thompson; two sisters, Earlene Hick and Desiree Booker; a niece and five nephews, Kimberly, BJ, Corey, Eric, Nicholas and William; three grandchildren, Sean Jr., Iyanna and Ryan, Jr.; her father, Robert Thompson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Kim was a strong independent woman. She loved helping people and everybody loved her for it. She had done so much for so many people. When they called her for anything or needed help she was there. By her doing so much for so many people she became a home aid for fifteen years and much more.

“We say she is gone but her spirit and laughter will live on in all of us forever”.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
