Obituary

James Franklin Conn was granted his angel wings on April 24, 2011. Although he was taken from us so soon, he was able to touch many lives. James Franklin Conn was the type to put everyone ahead of himself.

On October 16, 1986, James Franklin Conn was born to the parents of Susie Mae Binion and James Franklin Conn, Sr. in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was raised on Bergen Street in Newark, New Jersey. James was well known and respected by many. He always gave everyone a chance despite what you have done or what people have said about you. He spent most of his time playing video games with his specialty being driving and fighting games.

He is survived by his four siblings, Susie Marie Conn, Angelo Binion, William Demps and Andrea Conn; extended family, friends and his companion, Michelle Bray.

He was preceded in death by both his mother and father who awaits to meet up with him again beyond the sky.

God Saw That You Were Getting Tired

God saw that you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
