Obituary

Davarus Stephen McQueen was born in Brooklyn, New York to Shirley McQueen on October 30, 1987. Davarus attended schools in the New York region. He worked for the Board of Education for a short period and recently started classes at BMCC for business management. Davarus was the third eldest child of five. He was a loving family member and friend, he tried to be there for any and everyone, he was a friend above friends. A loving and caring person, he walked tall with a stern composure but always had a bubbly attitude.

Davarus was a person you could talk with and get a decent response and never was disrespectful to his elders. Davarus a.k.a. (Christopher) loved many and was well loved by many. We will miss you but keep you deep in our hearts.

Davarus - Christopher leaves behind: his mother, Shirley McQueen; father, Cornell Johnson; grandfather, Edison McQueen; four brothers, Raynell, Daycwan, Alonzo and Thomas; one nephew, Syncere; uncle; four aunts; and a host of cousins.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
