Obituary

Slone Ervin, Jr. was born on March 21, 1966 in the Bronx, New York to the late Flossie V. Ervin and Slone Ervin, Sr., on June 5, 2011 Slone was called to be with the Lord.

Slone was like a gentle giant, he was a beautiful man. He was generally shy around people, however, once he got to know you he sure would love to talk. He also had a great sense of humor. He would always try to make you laugh with his funny jokes. Slone loved to read and he loved to watch western movies. His favorite book was the Bible. He was a Christian man and loved listening to his Christian programs and music on the radio. As a kid he loved basketball and he was actually a good player. Some of his fondest memories were stories of playing with his brother, Phil and his deceased cousin, Edgar (who was like a second brother to him). Not too many people got to know Slone because he was really a private and a very simple man. He never wanted anyone to make a fuss over him and he took great pride on being as independent as he could. Slone's journey on this earth was not an easy one and not too many people could have walked in his shoes. Slone has finished this race, Jesus word was engraved into his heart and the songs of the Lords promises kept him from giving in to the heaviness of the cross he had to bare. Slone constantly said his greatest blessing was his Mom, Flossie. It was her love, diligence and commitment to prayer that lead him to Jesus and kept him strong. He is finally back in her loving arms.

Slone leaves to mourn: his only brother, Phillip Harris, Jr. whom he spoke to on the phone everyday and his voice will be terribly missed by him. They were each others best friend. He leaves to mourn his aunt, Elizabeth Wine; his uncle, Edward and aunt, Pat Stribling; and a host of cousins. He also leaves behind his extended family "The Lewis Family" who kept a watchful eye over him throughout the years.

Lovingly submitted

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.*
