Obituary

Louise C. Buffalo was born on December 12, 1919 in Charleston, South Carolina to the proud parents of Madeline Owens and Clarence Seabrook.

Louise came to New York as a young woman and met and fell in love with Thomas G. Buffalo. They were married for forty-four years until Thomas death in 2000. They had three children, Donna who died as a baby, Belinda and Thomas Jr. Louise was athletic and she liked to dance and make her own clothes. She was a good homemaker and wife. She liked people and people liked being around her.

She instilled the importance of going to church and for us to have faith in God.

Louise socialized with her sister, Tek and sisters-in-law, Robbie and Ethel. She loved Thanksgiving and Christmas gatherings with family and friends.

From 1969-1989, she worked as a supervisor at Alexander's Dept. Store until her retirement.

Louise graduated from high school and used her education skills well.

In her later years, she developed Dementia and acquired a caring family from (CCM) Couragement Care Facility. She gained three loving home attendants, Yvonne, Marissa and Alecia and Primary Nurse, Ms. Acgosta, RN.

Louise is survived by her children Thomas and Belinda; nieces, Hollie, Chanel, Renee and Laverne; nephews, Adrian and Gregory; sister-in-law, Ethel; and a host of other relatives and friends.

We Sat Beside Your Bedside

We sat beside your bedside, Our hearts were crushed and sore; We did our best to the end, 'Til we could do no more. In tears we watched you sinking, We watched you fade away; And though our hearts were breaking, We knew you could not stay. You left behind some aching hearts, That loved you most sincere; We never shall and never will Forget you Mother dear.

Acknowledgement
