Obituary

Myrtle Virginia Burnett Page was born on December 6, 1925, to Richard and Lillian Burnett.

A lifelong resident of the South Brunswick/Princeton area, Myrtle attended the Princeton Public Schools. She was very dedicated to her ten children.

Professionally, Myrtle was employed by Mattel Toys and Guest Distribution, from which she retired, in July of 1992, to stay home and take care of her granddaughter, Shaniece.

A woman of many interests, Myrtle loved the Lord. She was a lifelong member of Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church of Little Rocky Hill, where she served as a member of the Amelia Raddall Missionary Society, the Senior Choir and the Creative Arts and Liturgical Dance Ministry.

Myrtle was a remarkable woman of deep faith, who met every challenge and overcame adversity in her life. Myrtle was a sweet and loving authority figure who taught her children to be independent, self-sufficient, outspoken and determined. She impressed upon them the importance of education and she demanded respect. Myrtle was dependable, dedicated and loyal to her friends and family.
