Obituary

1921 ~ Ms. Henrietta Keye ~ 2011

Henrietta Keye was born October 28, 1921 In Nyack, New York to the late Thomas and Mary Toodles. Residing in Harlem, New York for the major portion of her life, Henrietta, also known as “Sis” departed this life on July 2, 2011 in Bellevue Hospital.

Henrietta moved to New York with her parents as a young girl, and was educated by the New York City School system, as a student at Wadliegh High School. She was a sweet person who had a smile that could warm the heart of anyone who stood in front of it. Henrietta lived in Harlem for many years. Though she lived a few places along the Fredrick Douglas Avenue, Henrietta has lived and created a home at 480 St. Nicholas Avenue for over thirty years, where she has raised her family.

To know Henrietta, was to love her. She had unconditional love for everybody she knew and patience to get to meet people she didn't. Nicknamed “Sis”, she extended the courtesy most reserve for close family, to family and friends alike. Henrietta opened her doors to all, and raised many generations of children, aside from her own. Henrietta was also religious, remaining a member of Salem United Methodist Church, long after her parents and original members passed on.

Henrietta leaves to mourn: one sister, Ida Mae Cain; three daughters, Diane Keye, Wanda Keye and Dawn McClain; five grandsons, Garnett, Emanon, Lawrence, Ikeem and Isiah; seven granddaughters, Pamala, Cherelle, Michelle, Christine, Lashawn, Janice and Tierra; twelve great grandchildren, Lashawntay, Reshonia, MiaAmour, Lorene, Nia, Mathew, Lassell, Timothy, Nickolas, Bryannie, Sparkle and Lawrence; three great great grandchildren, Cory, Lamar and Imani; along with nephews, nieces; and a host of extended family.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside still waters;
He restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil; for you are with me;
your rod and your staff-- they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD my whole life long.
