The Obituary

Wilner Cenexant was born on December 24, 1964 in Saint Marc, Haiti. He was born to Sidalise Horace and Celius Cenexant. He was the fifth of nine children. Among those nine children only three are still living today, Roges Destra, Prosper Cenexant and Jhislaine Cenexant.

He finished primary school and two years of post-secondary education. He then moved to Port-Au-Prince and pursued a job as a school math teacher.

He was married to Mirlend Arthur, with whom he had three children with, Ken Cenexant, Jona Cenexant and Wilmy Cenexant. The marriage ended soon after the birth of these children.

After a while, he received a visa to come to America in the year 1989. He worked as a chef at Hilton Hotel in 1992. During this time Wilner met a woman named Marie Velouse Cenexant whom he had two children with and another two children after their marriage on September 18, 1996. Their children were named, Kimberly Cenexant, Christina Cenexant, Wenda Cenexant and Ismael Cenexant. Wilner had a total of seven children.

He worked for the HP Computer Company which then moved out of state in 1997 and moved on to pursue an occupation as a self-employed cab driver. Then progressed to becoming a truck driver, but soon went back into cab driving.

Wilner Cenexant was diagnosed with Hodgkin's Lymphoma, cancer of the lymph nodes in September 2010. He was freed from the cancer months later. He was then re-diagnosed with the same cancer in June 2011. After battling the cancer over and over, he died on June 27, 2011.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
