The Obituary

Pauline Blackman was born in Trinidad, West Indies on the 6th of January, 1939 to Pookan Abdool and Sahiedan Abdool.

Pauline attended Rose Hill, R.C. School in Trinidad. She left home at the age of eighteen to pursue her education in England.

Polly attended Pitman College where she graduated as a secretary. She worked with the government of England for a number of years.

She left England in 1968 and migrated to Canada where she was employed at Maclean Hunter as a secretary.

After living in Canada for ten years, she migrated to the United States. Here she met her husband, Clyde Blackman.

Pauline worked for a pharmaceutical company as an accountant until she retired.

She joined New Hope Lutheran Church where she served on the accounting team.

She leaves to mourn: her mother who is ninety-two in Trinidad; five sisters, four brothers; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Just be thankful for those many beautiful years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much each and every one of you gave to me in happiness
So I thank you for the love you each have shown
But this is one of the times I must travel alone
So grieve for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
I won't be far away, because life goes on
So if you need me, call me and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear
And when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and
"Welcome You Home!"
